

L'Auberge Espagnole

Travel, culture, and the adventure of the unknown

Title: L'auberge espagnole
Release Date: 2002
Country of Origin: France-Spain
Director: Cédric Klapisch
Runtime: 121 Minuten
Genre: Drame
Language: French-Spanish-Catalan with German subtitles

 Cast
Romain Duris – Xavier
Judith Godrèche – Anne-Sophie
Audrey Tautou – Martine
Cécile de France - Isabelle
Kelly Reilly – Wendy
Cristina Brondo – Soledad
Federico D'Anna – Alessandro
Barnaby Metschurat – Tobias

Synopsis

What happens when a French student suddenly finds himself living in a chaotic flat share in Barcelona with flatmates from all over Europe? Culture shocks, language barriers, nights out, romantic entanglements and plenty of unexpected moments.

L'Auberge Espagnole is the perfect blend of comedy, romance and coming-of-age – a film about friendship, freedom and the wild university life far from home. For everyone who loves, misses or wonders what on earth they've got themselves into with Erasmus.